THE Christian brethren's mind to-day;
We think you'll find it so;
Is not on good things up above,
But good things down below;
For when they see the chicken legs,
And scores of waiting ladies,
They gladly give up Paradise,
For Brother Briney's Hades.

PRAYER meeting at the Third street M. E. church, on Thursday evening at half-past seven o'clock.

MR. JESSE ELLIS, of Brown county, Ohio, has shown us a sample of his wheat which is the finest we have seen this season.

ROBERT WHEELER, aged fourteen, on Tuesday, fell from a fence in the alley near the old salt shed on Front street, and broke the bones of both arms.

A SOCIAL event looked forward to with considerable interest, is the marriage on Wednesday Sept. 6, of Miss Sue Jacobs to Mr. Allie Means. The ceremony will take at the Baptist church. Good luck to them.

WILLIAM WATSON and Wesley Smith were found guilty of carrying concealed weapons, Tuesday, in the mayor's court and their punishment fixed at a fine of $25 each and confinement in the county jail ten days.

CAPT. J. A. JACKSON passed through here yesterday on his way east, where he goes to lay in his stock of fall and winter goods. He will return in ten days or two weeks with all the late novelties of the season at bed rock prices.

MR. T. J. NOLIN, the well known caterer, has secured all the booth privileges at the Maysville fair, and will also have charge of the dining room. Mr. Nolin is an excellent provider, of long experience, and cannot fail to render entire satisfaction to the public.

THE ladies will find at Mrs. George H. Wheeler's millinery establishment on Market street, near Front, a very choice assortment of goods in that line. The stock has been selected with great care and will be sold at exceedingly low prices. The ladies are invited to call.

THE Saponaceous Dentifrice manufactured at J. J. Wood's Drug Emporium is really a very excellent article and must meet with a ready sale. It is regarded as one of the best preparations of the kind in the market and has never failed to give entire satisfaction. Those who need a good tooth powder should use it.

THE bridge committee has decided to put up a temporary bridge over Limestone creek to cost about $350. The contract has been awarded to Mr. John E. Bauer, of Aberdeen, with the understanding that the work shall be finished by next Wednesday. The committee later will provide a substantial wooden truss bridge, to cost in the neighborhood of $2,000.

Engaged for the Week.

Otto Holstein, editor of the Breeder's Gazette, Chicago, and one of the best posted stock and turmen in the country, has been engaged by the management, to preside over the speed rings during our fair. This insures equal fairness and strict conformity to the rules. Mr. Holstein has filled this position at two former meetings in this city with credit to himself and great satisfaction to the management and owners of stock.

Judas Coons entered upon the discharge of his duties to-day.

Mr. Hanson P. Diltz of Augusta is in Maysville to-day. His new novel, we learn from him, is in press and will be issued about the middle of September.

Special Premiums.

All those who have subscribed special premiums, will be called upon by the Secretary of the Board, on Monday next. He is fully authorized to collect same. We hope all will be prepared to pay promptly.

By ORDER OF BOARD.
